6 August 1965

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Warner

SUBJECT: [REDACTED]

1. On 17 May 1965 Mr. Frank McNamara requested approval for HCUA to interview Subject when available.

2. On 28 July 1965 after [REDACTED] had been contacted, Mr. McNamara and one of his investigators, Mr. Philip Manuel, were advised that HCUA had first priority on Subject when he is available. They requested background information on Subject.

3. On 30 July 1965 the [REDACTED] sent the attached memorandum (Attachment A) to Legislative Counsel with two caveats for oral presentation to HCUA, along with background data which was classified SECRET. Later, the desk advised that the background data, if presented in a blind memorandum, would be unclassified (Attachment B). The [REDACTED] also said that Subject would be available for executive hearings before the Committee or for staff interview on 1, 2, or 3 September.

4. On 2 August 1965 the unclassified background data and the first oral caveat of [REDACTED] memorandum were given to Mr. McNamara.
